Mine for Nine Giveaway!

This week I am giving away a $50 gift code to a truly unique website. It's all about maternity clothing, I know, stop groaning. Trust me, I have worn three sets of maternity clothes and had to buy new stuff each time. It was not fun for me or my budget. I wish I had known about Mine for Nine.

Mine for Nine is such a find! It is all about getting the clothes you need for those special nine months and then returning them when you are done. No need to kill your budget and spend a fortune on maternity clothes with Mine for Nine. Simply pick what you want, pay way less than you would retail (yes, you rent them!) and then ship them back when you are done. It's easy, there's no storing of the maternity clothes later and it works really well if you have a special occasion and don't want to spend a fortune.

How are the clothes? Gorgeous! They are trendy, classic, and come from all over the world. You cannot go wrong with Mine for Nine.
